

Your Family Law Strategist.

NOVEMBER 2024

In this month's newsletter, we explore two challenging but important issues: protecting family heirlooms and living with an estranged partner. Our first blog, "Can heirlooms be part of a divorce settlement agreement?", delves into what happens to cherished family heirlooms during asset division and how to protect these meaningful items. Our second blog, "Can I get my spouse to leave our shared home during a divorce?", provides insight into legal options for managing shared living spaces while navigating the divorce process. Together, these articles offer practical guidance to help you make informed choices that prioritize both your assets and your well-being.
